a message from RAISINS

Watching Officer Tou Thao, an Asian man, stand by and do nothing as Officer Chauvin brutally murdered Floyd was a powerful reminder of the passivity that has existed in the Asian community during instances of oppression against Black bodies. This has provided the Asian community an important opportunity to look within and ensure that passivity at the hands of white oppression comes to an end.

Racist police violence is far from the only manifestation of violence against Black people in the US: we must work to fight mass incarceration, gentrification, unequal pay, inaccessible housing & education and much more. Fighting police brutality helps combat other injustices.

This resource guide highlights ways that the Asian community can step up and take action rather than continuing to remain passive on the sidelines.

WHY ASIANS NEED TO SUPPORT BLACK LIVES NOW

MASS INCARCERATION OF BLACK BODIES

- BLACK MALES BORN IN 2001 HAVE A 32% CHANCE OF GOING TO JAIL, COMPARED TO THE 17% LATINO MALES, AND 6% WHITE MALES
- BLACK WOMEN ARE 2X MORE LIKELY TO BE INCARCERATED THAN THEIR WHITE COUNTERPARTS
- BLACK MALES MAKE UP 6% OF THE US POPULATION BUT 40% OF THE INCARCERATED POPULATION

POLICE VIOLENCE AGAINST BLACK BODIES

- BLACK PEOPLE ARE 2.5X MORE LIKELY TO BE KILLED BY POLICE THAN THEIR WHITE COUNTERPARTS
- IN 2019, BLACK PEOPLE ACCOUNTED FOR 24% OF PEOPLE KILLED AT THE HANDS OF POLICE - DESPITE ONLY MAKING UP 13% OF THE POPULATION
- IN RECENT MINNEAPOLIS PROTESTS FOLLOWING GEORGE FLOYD'S DEATH, POLICE USED FORCE AGAINST BLACK PROTESTERS AT 7X THE RATE USED AGAINST WHITES

WHERE TO START

"30+ WAYS ASIANS PERPETUATE ANTI-BLACK RACISM" BY MICHELLE KIM

PREFERRING LIGHT SKIN OVER DARK SKIN

This not only hurts members of our own community, but also inevitably perpetuates the narrative that dark skin is unworthy.

BUYING INTO THE MODEL MINORITY MYTH

Saying things like: "They bring this upon themselves" "They should not commit crimes" The model minority myth was created to prevent solidarity among Black people and Asian people.

FORGETTING HISTORY

Asian Americans often forget that we would not have our own civil rights if not for the Black leaders of the Civil Rights Movement.

PUSHING ASSIMILATION

There notion among Asian American communities that as long as we try to fit in among white people we can escape racism serves to erase cultural differences and homogenizes.

SELECTIVE POLITICAL SUPPORT

Many Asian Americans support immigration to reunite our own families but do not fight the mass incarceration of black people that separates theirs.

PRIORITIZING ECONOMIC SUCCESS

The belief among Asian Americans that economic success will free us from racism and is the answer for all is simply giving into the system of oppression.

ENCOURAGING SILENCE

Many Asian Americans encourage silence in the face of racism, and push the idea that so long as we keep our heads down and work hard, we will overcome prejudice. This silence occurs both in the face of anti-Asian racism and anti-Black racism We must speak up and force our families to confront their anti-blackness, as well as speak up for ourselves.

WHAT IS THE MODEL MINORITY MYTH?

The myth that all Asians are well off, getting good grades in school, attending elite universities, and ending up in high paying jobs.

What this serves to do is draw attention away from white privilege. Asians are used as the example of opportunity in America, showing that race is not an inhibiting factor.

This creates a false representation of opportunity in America as well as creating a false representation of the Asian community, as it disregards the struggles that a great number face – particularly within the high numbers of recent immigrants.

Finally, it serves to disrupt solidarity between people of color.

HOW DOES THE MODEL MINORITY MYTH DISRUPT SOLIDARITY?

"It makes a flawed comparison between Asian Americans and other groups, particularly Black Americans, to argue that racism, including more than two centuries of black enslavement, can be overcome by hard work and strong family values"

JANELLE WONG, DIRECTOR OF ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK,

In 1966, William Petersen published an article in the New York Times called "Success Story: Japanese American Style". His article compared Japanese Americans and African Americans. "It solidified a prevailing stereotype of Asians as industrious and rule-abiding that would stand in direct contrast to African-Americans, who were still struggling against bigotry, poverty and a history rooted in slavery."

LETTERS FOR BLACK LIVES

Sometimes, we might not know what to say to our families to gain their support. Letters for Black Lives has created letters with dozens of translations to help us start those conversations.

lettersforblacklives.com

Dear Mom, Dad, Uncle, Auntie:
Black Lives Matter to Us, Too

ถึงคุณพ่อ คุณแม่ และญาติที่รักและเคารพ:
ชีวิตคนผิวดำก็มีความหมายต่อเราเหมือนกัน

প্রিয় মা, বাবা, আংকেল, আন্টি: কালো জীবন মূল্যবান, আমাদের কাছেও।

親愛的媽媽、爸爸、叔叔、阿姨：
我們也珍惜黑人的生命

SOLIDARITY

In the 1960s and 70s, Black activists fought for the civil rights we enjoy today. Some Asians joined the fight and helped amplify those Black voices. We need to emulate their support today, for without those Black activists leading the fight, we would not be where we are today.

While across the internet the slogan "Yellow Peril Supports Black Power" is popular in Asian support of the Black Lives Matter movement, it has the negative effect of centering Asian voices, something we must avoid as we work to amplify Black voices.

Yuri Kochiyama

Yuri Kochiyama saw that racism has placed people of color in similar positions of marginalization and pushed for solidarity among the Asian American and Black communities. She was a Japanese American activist who fought for Black liberation, Puerto Rican independence, Arabs, Muslims, and South Asians post 9/11. While Kochiyama recognized the uniqueness of each ethnic group, she understood the importance of solidarity against racism and polarization.

“SOLIDARITY DOES NOT ASSUME THAT OUR STRUGGLES ARE THE SAME
STRUGGLES, OR THAT OUR PAIN IS THE SAME PAIN, OR THAT OUR HOPE IS FOR
THE SAME FUTURE. SOLIDARITY
INVOLVES COMMITMENT, AND WORK,
AS WELL AS THE RECOGNITION THAT EVEN IF WE DO NOT HAVE THE SAME
FEELINGS, OR THE SAME LIVES, OR THE
SAME BODIES, WE DO LIVE ON COMMON GROUND.”
